’apa’áal

’apa’aál - May. Season of ’ápa.’ápa is a loaf of ground qáaws, for winter use. The time when the spring root festival, ke'uyit, is celebrated. Also called ’apáam’na, the season between spring and summer and/or sapátma. ’apáasiis – mush made of ’ápa, same as qáamsitsiis.

halx̣páawit	halx̣páawin’aqit	lepítkaa’awn	mitáatkaa’awn	píileptkaa’awn	páax̣atkaa’awn	halx̣pawit’áasx
Phrases from the Niimíipuu story: “Origin of the Sweathouse”				1 Híiwes píiten’wet It is Talk, discussion (General Council).	2 Híiwes píiten’wet It is Talk, discussion (General Council).	3 Híiwes píiten’wet It is Talk, discussion (General Council).
’eeh. Wistitám’onm péene, wéeyeteqeeqqu’ke’yx. Kawó’ wewúkye hitqeeqqu’ke’eyke kéetu ké’yx ké’yx ké’yx “Yes,” Sweathouse said to him (Elk). Then you run gallop. Then the Elk he ran/galloped full motion the grace (sound effect).
4	5	6	7	8	9	10
“’eeh tá’c ’ee wées wewúkye ’ee wées,” Wistitám’onm péene. Kawó’ kal’a ku’ mípx hitqequuqe’éyke. “Yes good you are the elk you are,” the Sweathouse said to him. Then he galloped off in some unknown direction.
11 pikéenm lééheyn. Mother’s Day.	12	13	14	15	16	17
Ka weptéesne peemúne Wistitám’onm kaa péene, “’itúu ’íim wic’éese.” Then the eagle he called the Sweathouse and said to him (to eagle), “What you wish to be?”
18	19	20	21	22	23	24
Weptéesnim peemstéqe’npe, kaa péene, “kex wéeptes kálo’ ko’sannix wéete.” The eagle answered him and said to him, “I will Eagle (just it) the same be.”					“Wéeye weeke’éyx,” Péene Wistitám’onm. “You fly”, said to him the Sweathouse.
25	26 ’etmíipnisix lééheyn. Memorial Day.	27	28	29	30	31
Kawó’ wéeptes hiweeke’éyke, kaa hitqeetiqe’éyke, qe’tu talíix. Then eagle he flew, and he flew (on its wings stretched out in a ripple way), somewhat graceful calm/still.

leputmúusus wax̣ púutimt wax̣ píilept 2014